PLAN OF ORGANIZATION OF THE CONSERVATIVE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a chairman and thirty members—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The committee shall have power to maintain its organization by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registrations, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organization, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

PLATFORM.

The Conservative people of North Carolina, having by their delegates assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty, and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States, and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial department are equal and co-ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people, of the Reconstruction Acts, and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal offices.

3. Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper measure within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race, that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder in the last resort of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact as established by law in the earlier and better days of the republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats, and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States, and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union, on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates for the State at large, to represent the conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, hereafter to be appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered, and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said office.

The North Carolinian.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land."

WM. A. HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Friday, February 28, 1868.

"THAT IT IS THE SENSE OF THIS CONVENTION THAT REBELS SHOULD NOT BE ENFRANCHISED INDISCRIMINATELY."

The above resolution was introduced into the Radical State Nominating Convention yesterday afternoon by F. F. French, of Maine, a delegate in that body and in the so-called Constitutional Convention from the county of Bladen. Mr. French made his appearance in North Carolina as a peddler of cakes and cheap wares generally, in this city. He now claims to reside in the county of Bladen, and shamefully misrepresents the sentiments of the decent people of that community. He supported his resolution in a speech abounding in bitterness and bile towards those whom he impertinently styles the rebels of the State, and declared his unalterable opposition to their enfranchisement. He was followed by one Mabson, a negro clerk in the Wilmington post office, in impudent villification of several of the most eminent gentlemen of the State.

Despite the opposition and entreaties of more liberal members, the resolution was adopted by a vote of 119 to 68. In explanation of those whom they term "rebels," Ex-Gov's. Graham and Vance and Capt. Plato Durham, of Cleveland, were named as belonging to that class of our citizens, whose enfranchisement was opposed.

White men of North Carolina! these are the sentiments cherished by these Yankee interlopers against your own kith and kin. The resolution was intended to operate upon the so-called constitutional convention, and to force that body into the incorporation of proscriptive features in the constitution it is framing. What its fate there will be we can not foretell. It is sufficient for our purposes to know, that this later convention, composed of delegates fresh from their constituents, has committed the party by solemn resolve to the doctrine embodied in the resolution.

It should seal its fate in North Carolina. It will do it, unless her sons have lost all respect for truth and justice and manliness; unless they have become debauched by cowardice, and are ready to make sacrifice of their honor for the hope of a temporary gain. Are you ready, white men of North Carolina, to assist in so damning a work? Ready to strike hands with adventurers, and enter upon a task so pregnant with infamy? The gentlemen of the State, against whom the envenomed hate of this resolution is aimed, are her noblest and worthiest sons. They are to be banned, proscribed, degraded beneath the level of ignorant and brutal negroes, so far as this resolution can effect it. Are you ready for the work? We believe not. Then let every North Carolinian in sentiment as well as by nativity, get vigorously to work to defeat these schemers against their well-doing.

The old State can be redeemed if her children are not fools or cowards.—Already the good work is begun. Let every man, from the seaboard to the mountains, bestir himself industriously for the success of the principles we profess.

We appeal to men, not cravens! To men with will and courage, and love for our institutions in their purity and dignity. Everything that makes life desirable or tolerable, is involved, and he who shirks in this hour of supremest danger, deserves, and will receive the scorn of all honest and decent people, now and hereafter.

THE Radical State Convention consumed yesterday in completing the ticket for State offices, by the nomination of Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts of the State. We give below the names of the nominees:

For Judges of the Supreme Court:

Col. Wm. B. Rodman, of Beaufort.

Hon. Richmond M. Pearson, of Yadkin.

Robert P. Dick, Esq., of Guilford.

For Judges of the Superior Court:

First District—C. C. Pool, of Pasquotank.

Second District—E. W. Jones, of Washington.

Third District—C. R. Thomas, of Carteret.

Fourth District—Daniel L. Russell, Jr., of Brunswick.

Fifth District—Ralph P. Buxton, of Cumberland.

Sixth District—Samuel W. Watts, of Martin.

Seventh District—Thomas Settle, of Rockingham.

Eighth District—D. H. Starbuck, of Forsythe.

Ninth District—G. W. Logan, of Rutherford.

Tenth District—Anderson Mitchell, of ——.

Eleventh District—Jacob Bowman.

Twelfth District—R. H. Cannon.

The Constitutional Convention, so-called, has created so great a number of offices that we are not quite sure that we have given all the nominations. We believe, however, that these constitute the ticket.

THE following items under the heading "Latest News," appeared in the Raleigh Standard, of the 5th of June, 1861, edited by W. W. Holden, now the nominee of the Radical-Republican party for Governor of North Carolina:

"Ex-Govs. Pratt and Lowe of Maryland have been arrested by Lincoln. It is said a plot has been formed in Washington to massacre Jeff Davis."

Upon these items the Radical-Republican nominee for Governor commented thus:

"WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"

We ask who dare say that this question did not fire the soul and nerve the arm of John Wilkes Booth?

A COMMITTEE of negro delegates from the South Carolina Reconstruction Convention visited Washington some days since to confer with Radical members of Congress as to the admission of negro congressmen. The committee returned, on yesterday, and reported to the Convention that the Republicans did not desire the election of negro congressmen.

This undoubtedly accounts for the declination of J. H. Harris yesterday.—Such is Radical sympathy and Radical friendship. Let negroes do the voting, and we will fill the offices, is their purpose and desire.

IT is scarcely possible that the reform bill announced by the government of Great Britain will satisfy the demands of the Irish people and bring repose to that country. The concessions proposed by the government are enforced ones, and do not carry the healing properties possessed by measures voluntarily and generously granted. The Irishman's warmest hopes and dearest aspirations centre in the freedom of Ireland from British rule, and the conduct of England has not been such as to repress or destroy them. Wide spread and deep-seated dissatisfaction exists, and the extorted favors will not uproot it.

THE HAPPY FAMILY,

—OR—

THE CAPITOL MONKEY SHOW!

(BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER UNDER THE TABLE.)

[The reader is particularly requested to remember the fact that no Reporter for this paper is allowed on the floor, in the halls or in the galleries of the Convention, and consequently our reports are made from under the table, behind the scenes, or as may be otherwise ordered and convenient.]

The ardous exertions of the Kangaroos, in the grand exhibition at Tucker Hall, on Wednesday morning and night, had so fatigued them that they very reluctantly obeyed the wailing of their Fayther, when he sought to induce them to leave their cages to assume their parts in the day's performance. Slowly, sleepily and wearily, they stretched their tired limbs, uttered a few dissatisfied growls and left their dens.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY.

THURSDAY, Feb. 27, '68.

The North Carolinian was read, as usual, and the archives corrected thereby.

Mr. Candler, the Buncombe Babe, with an additional supply of "bar's greese" on his ambrosial locks to catch the eye of the "damsuels of of color," in the gallery, moved that the animals be excused from duty until 7½ o'clock, but withdrew his motion at the request of Mr. Hodnett, who rose to a privileged question.

Mr. Hodnett said that he desired to make inquiry in regard to the postal system. Members of the Convention were allowed to send mail matter without being required to pay the postage.

Several members here called Mr. Hodnett to order. They said the question he was discussing was not a privileged question at all.

Mr. Hodnett proceeded, despite the point of order, and stated that he had witnessed daily, large baskets of mail going from the Convention, on which members had not paid one cent of postage. He wished to know where they got the right to spend the money of the people in any such manner. They were receiving eight dollars a day for their services and could surely afford to pay postage on such mail matter as they desired to forward. Several gentlemen on the Conservative side had prepared resolutions on the subject, but had not had opportunities to present them.

The Tourgee, "unamiable cuss," renewed the motion to adjourn, while the Buncombe Babe was on the floor, whereupon the sweet child was affected to tears because the Tourgee had prevented him from going where Carey wished to go. Ugly Tourgee!

Mr. Candler, the deserter, said he would now renew his motion for an adjournment until 7½ o'clock.

The Tourgee moved to amend by inserting 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The Buncombe Babe at first objected, but subsequently yielded, while a placid smile was upon his "cherub face."

The motion, as amended, was carried.

The varmints dispersed, and soon appeared in other characters at Tucker Hall.

The democracy of St. Louis are taking measures for a mass meeting at an early day to express their views on the situation at Washington.

Telegrams to the President.

To show the deep feeling produced in the Northern mind by the impeachment project, we publish the following dispatches received by the President:

Indianapolis, Feb. 24.—Your friends in Indiana send you greeting assurances of support in your fight for the constitution.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 24.—Your friends here are moving. Remain firm. Be thou ruler even in the midst among thine enemies.

GEO. H. KEYSER, Vice President D. C.,
WM. MURRAY,
Of the National Union Committee,
Alleghany county.

New London, Feb. 24.—At a meeting of the Democrats of New London, held this evening, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, in view of the present revolutionary attitude of Congress, acting, as its leaders confess, outside of the constitution of the United States, and in view of the position of the President in resisting such action,

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of the city of New London, pledge him our most hearty support in money, votes or men.

F. L. ALLEN, Chairman.

B. P. Watrous, Secretary.

New York, Feb. 24.—Every decent man in New York city is with you. We will take care of all Governor Geary's men. God bless you.—We are ready for the issue.

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 24.—Uphold vigorously the Executive and Judicary Departments of the government against any cabal that attempts to destroy them, and the people will sustain you.

CHAS. D. HIPPLE,
Chairman Democratic Standing Committee,
Schuylkill county, Pa.

New Bedford, Mass., Feb. 24.—You will be sustained in executing the laws, under the constitution, in New England. Stand firm.

Numerous letters and telegraphic dispatches of encouragement and proffering aid in soldiers, etc., have come to the President. From the dispatches the following may be selected as specimens: "I can raise one thousand men to sustain you from my (second) district, New Jersey, if necessary."

"You are right. The friends of constitutional liberty in New Hampshire will sustain you. A. S. Marshal, Chairman Democratic State Committee of New Hampshire." From Maysville, Ky., the following: "Will one regiment of Irish be of any service to you? Answer."

From Columbus, Ohio, the following: "An unusually large and enthusiastic meeting of the people of this city is now being held in the rotunda of the State House. Resolutions have been passed pledging the support of the people hereabouts to the President in his struggle with reckless usurpation and assumption of despotic congressional power, and avowing a determination to stand by him at whatever sacrifice and to whatever extent may be necessary to enable him to overcome the foes of public peace and order in the so-called Congress of the United States. Jno. G. Thompson, W. D. Rankin and John M. Pugh, committee.

The Points on Mr. Johnson's Side.

In the House of Representatives on Monday Judge Woodward, of Pennsylvania, argued that the resolution of impeachment was a mistake, and that any impeachment of the President on the idea that Secretary Stanton was within the protection of the tenure-of-office bill was what Fouche, the chief of the old French police, would have called worse than a crime—a blunder. Whatever executive power the Federal Government possessed was vested in the President, who was made the sole trustee of the people in that regard. In the matter of appointments to office and the treaty-making function, a check was imposed upon the President; but even in those instances the power exercised was the President's. The concurrence of the Senate was only a regulation for the exercise of the power. It was a mere advisory discretion, not an executive power.

The Senate possessed not an iota of executive power. The separateness and completeness of this executive power in the hands of the President was a doctrine essential to the harmony of the system of government, and to the responsibility of the President to the people. If Congress meddled with it, Congress became a trespasser and its act an impertinent nullity, and the President was not to be impeached for disregarding it. He quoted extracts from the debate, in the First Congress, upon the executive departments, and argued that that debate settled this question absolutely, and demonstrated the utter unconstitutionality of the act of March 2, 1867. He also argued that by the very terms of that act itself Mr. Stanton did not come within its scope, and quoted Senator Sherman and Messrs. Spalding and Bingham as taking the same view of the law when it was under consideration.

Mr. Johnson was a man of the Republican party's own choosing, and he verily believed that the President was trying to restore the Union, to pacificate the country, and to administer his high office with a faithful regard to the obligations of the Constitution and the best interests of the people. He seemed to him to be a true friend to the whole of his country, a faithful public officer, and entitled to Cabinet advisers who were his friends, and not his enemies. Congress had far better sustain such a man in his constitutional rights, and address itself to the relief of the suffering country, than to waste its time and people's money in impeaching a faithful public servant on charges that are both false and foolish. At the risk of denunciation, he (Mr. Woodward) denied the right of the House to impeach anybody, and the right of the Senate to try any impeachment. The House was not composed, as the Constitution required, the members "chosen by the people of the several States;" nor was the Senate composed of "two Senators from each State."

In conclusion, he said: Mr. Speaker, so sure am I that the American people will respect this objection that if I were the President's counsellor I would advise him, if you prefer articles of impeachment, to demur both to your jurisdiction and that of the Senate, and to issue a proclamation giving you and all the world notice that whilst he held himself impeachable for misdemeanors in office before the constitutional tribunal, he never would subject the office he holds in trust for the people to the irregular, unconstitutional, fragmentary bodies who propose to strip him of it. Such a proclamation, with the army and navy in hand to sustain it, would meet a popular response that would make an end of impeachment and impeachers.

There is great excitement in Bedford, Pa.—Several companies are being formed to support the President. Captain T. H. Lyons has fifty men on his list, and at least three companies can be ready in forty-eight hours.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

The Democrats had a caucus to-night in the judiciary committee-room of the House, which was largely attended, nearly all the democratic members of the House and Senate being present. The general situation was discussed and arrangements were made with regard to the coming campaign. In view of the action of the House to-day in limiting debate on the forthcoming impeachment articles, a line of action was agreed upon, and the minority is now thoroughly organized to act with unanimity on every question.—Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

PROPHECY FULFILLED.—"If the infernal fanatics and abolitionists ever get power in their hands they will override the constitution, set the Supreme Court at defiance, change and make laws to suit themselves, lay violent hands on those who differ with them in their opinions or dare question their infallibility, and finally bankrupt the country and deluge it with blood."—Daniel Webster, March 7, 1850.

[The above appears in the Philadelphia Age of Monday in perhaps a dozen different places, and each time in capital letters.]

One of the stories afloat is that, if President Johnson is impeached and Mr. Wade becomes President, the Cabinet will be as follows:

Charles Sumner, of Massachusetts, Secretary of State; Freeman Clarke, of New York, Secretary of the Treasury; William D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, Secretary of the Navy; Frederick Douglass, (colored) of New York, Secretary of the Interior; John M. Langston, of Ohio, Postmaster General; M. H. Carpenter, of Wisconsin, Attorney General; Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War, (of course.)

The committee of seven to prepare articles of impeachment have appointed Messrs. Stevens, Boutwell, Bingham and Wilson a sub-committee to prepare the evidence, (which is principally of a record character,) and also to perfect articles.

OUR MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

In the Senate nothing was done generally interesting.

In the House a bill was presented bridging the Ohio at Paducah. Runion, of Illinois, opposed the bill because the whole railroad system of the South was guaged differently from the Northern roads, expressly in view of a separation. Two sections of the bill passed.

The bill constructing a postal bridge over the Ohio at Licking river passed.

The civil appropriations was resumed.

Colfax read to the House a letter from the chief of police of New York to the chief at Washington, reported one hundred and sixty pounds of nitro glycerine was in unauthorized hands in New York. The chief feared it was intended for Washington. The communication seemed to create more alarm than merriment.

South Carolina Convention.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 27.

The Convention yesterday passed seventeen sections of Judiciary. Judges are to be elected by the Legislature. The County, District and Probate Courts are abolished. Strong effort was made for the election of Judges by the people but failed.

A resolution was adopted tendering the thanks of the loyal people of South Carolina to Congress, Grant and Stanton. Some negroes were opposed to it.

The committee, two colored delegates, have returned from Washington, with the information that the Republicans didn't wish for the election of colored Congressmen.

The State is to be re-divided into Congressional Districts, with six representatives instead of four.

The Convention is now holding two sessions daily, and expect to finish their work by the fifteenth of March.

There is a great rush for offices.

THE

NORTH CAROLINIAN,

A DAILY,

Democratic Newspaper,

PUBLISHED AT

RALEIGH, N. C.

W. A. HEARNE, JOHN W. DUNHAM,

EDITORS.

The NORTH CAROLINIAN is Democratic in its principles. It is unalterably opposed to Negro Suffrage, Military rule, and Reconstruction upon the basis of Congressional enactment. Its Editors believe and teach that this is a

WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT,

FRAMED BY THE BRAINS, AND

WON BY THE BLOOD OF WHITE MEN,

FOR THE BENEFIT OF WHITE MEN,

AND THAT IT SHOULD BE

CONTROLLED BY WHITE MEN ONLY.

As there is but ONE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION professing these sentiments and committed to their maintenance, the NORTH CAROLINIAN will steadily advocate the abandonment of all other party names and organizations, and yield a hearty co-operation with that organization—the NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

THE NORTH CAROLINIAN,

Will contain the freshest News, by telegraph and otherwise. Full reports of all Legislative Assemblies will be furnished its readers.

Particular attention will be paid to State news, and each number will contain a complete epitome of every incident reported in the State press.

MARKETS will be carefully reported.

The Weekly North Carolinian

is the largest and handsomest paper in the State and will be filled with choice family reading and selected literary matter.

PRICE OF SUBSCRIPTION:

We respectfully request our friends in all portions of the State to interest themselves in our behalf.

RATES OF ADVERTISING LIBERAL.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee, are respectfully requested to meet in this city on Friday, the 28th inst., at 11 o'clock. A full attendance is much desired.

By order of the

CHAIRMAN.

THE RADICAL POW-WOW.

The Radical pow-wow, after one of the stormiest and most undignified sessions we have ever known in an assembly of the character, adjourned at about 11 o'clock last night. The work of the body is done. We are glad to believe that it will not commend itself to the judgment or feelings of our people. The duty devolves upon us to defeat the plans it has made for the control of the State. Until this campaign is closed, North Carolinians should have no other thoughts save such as look to the overthrow of these scallawags and adventurers.

CITY AND STATE.

The Editor

Is responsible for whatever appears in this column.

Congressional Nomination for the First District.

The delegates to the State Nominating Convention, from the counties composing the First Congressional District, assembled in this city yesterday, and nominated John R. French, of Washington city, and delegate to the Kangaroo Koncern from the county of Chowan, as the candidate of the Radical Republican party for Congress. Judging from the appearance of the delegation as it paraded the street on yesterday morning, we suppose the nomination to have been a unanimous one. It consisted of about twenty negroes and five negroes by brevet, and they followed the aforesaid John R. like sheep going to the shambles.

By what arrangement has Raleigh been located in the first, second and fourth Congressional Districts? So far, three nominations for Congress have been made in this city, during the present week; Mr. French for the first District; Col. Heaton for the second; and Col. Deweese for the fourth. This is a new feature in North Carolina politics, and we believe that the Republicans of the State have been swindled by self-constituted leaders. So far, no native North Carolinian has been nominated for Congress. We are glad of it. Northern men of their own party have neither respect nor confidence in them, and they think rightly. Men who seek to enslave their own people, would prove treacherous to any cause, should it seem to be a failing one. They are influenced, solely by personal considerations, and are destitute, in a large majority of cases, of principle.

Snubbed Again.

Be it remembered that at the first Radical conclave assembled in this city, Calvin J. Rogers, of this county, a political mountebank and scalawag, who has been, in years past, an unsuccessful aspirant for every office in the gift of the people, applied for admission to the body, when his loyalty was doubted by Tont Taylor, and other members from Wake. He was finally admitted to a seat, after swallowing a double dose of black vomit, and the administration of an excoriating reprimand from Jeemes Harris. Since that time, Rogers, full of new-born zeal, has tried to atone, Radical fashion, for having once been a comparatively decent man, by attending every nigger meeting in the county, and associating exclusively with the most ignorant and debased. His masters observing and admiring his course, desired to reward his services by promoting him to the sinecure of Sergeant-at-arms in Kowles' Menagerie, but failed.

At the Nigger State Konvenshun on Monday last, another effort to obtain a place for him was made, Jeemes Harris even, waxing eloquent in his behalf, but the Konvenshun "couldn't see it," and Calvin J. goes unrewarded, unknown—a beautiful illustration of the old adage: "Republic(an)s are mighty ungrateful!"

Another Frenchman in the Field.

A correspondent of the Petersburg Express, writing to that paper from this city, names George Z. French, a second-hand grocery dealer, in Wilmington, as a probable candidate for Congress from the 3rd District.

This fellow French, if we are not mistaken, commenced life in North Carolina as a sutler, or cake and pie peddler in General Terry's army, while a younger "buddy"—the big footed "diligit" from Maine, vis Bladen, made his debut in the same line, and at about the same time in this city.

The latter is now engaged in the pleasant pastime of "Konstitooshun" [that's the way these "deown East gents" pronounce it] making at $8 per diem. Why, then, shouldn't the "big buddy" go to Congress?

Hooray, we say, for the French sutlers,—there's no telling the luck of a "lousy calf."

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were before his honor, W. D. HAYWOOD, on yesterday:

M. Bledsoe, D. Hayes, and D. Hamlet, whites, and H. Williams, nigger, charged with a violation of a city ordinance, were fined $5 each.

Samuel Harris, charged with making a personal exposure on Wilmington Street, was fined $5.

J. V. Sherrard

has been nominated for the Solicitorship of the Third District. Mr. Sherrard has no antecedents, we believe, if we except the everlasting larruping which extra ne plus ultra Billy Smith gave him in Goldsboro some years ago.

Byron's Photograph of the Tourgee.

A cold blooded, smooth-faced, placid miscreant,—
Upon whose embarrass'd brow Nature has writ—
VILLAIN,

Nomination for Congress.

The Radical District Convention, for the Fourth Congressional District, met at the capitol yesterday morning, for the selection of a candidate for Congress. The nomination was tendered to Jeemes H. Harris, the gay Lothario; but, in accordance with the instructions of his masters, he declined the honor. Col. John T. Deweese was then made the nominee of the party, and accepted. The claims of Johnny McDonald, whose whole course in the Kangaroo Konvenshun has been shaped for the nomination, were ingloriously ignored. Disappointed and grieved, the self-confessed fool from Chatham sought consolation in an additional supply of ginger cakes and candy, furnished him by the kindness of some sympathizing friend. The last seen of Mack he was walking down Fayetteville street, dejected and disconsolate, munching "gunger bread" with gorilla avidity, and muttering:

"Oh, ever thus from childhood's hour,
I've seen my fondest hopes decay,
I never dreamed of place or power,
But some blamed Yankee blocked the way.
Towards Congress I had turned my nose,
And thought I'd go in like a breeze,
But candidates like mushrooms rose,
And I'm floored,—d—n John Deweese."

Gwine to de Konvenshun.

SCENE—Bank corner. Two darkies in great hurry meet Ye Local.

First Darkey—Mistur, can yer tell me whar dis Konvenshun is whar dey go to offis?

Ye Local—Yes; you see that big house yonder at the end of this street, (pointing to the Governor's mansion,) that's the place.

Second Darkey—Come on, Josh! Lord a'massy 'pon me, dey will gin 'em all out 'fore we git dar.

[Exeunt darkies in great haste looking for de Konvenshun.]

Odoriferous.

The perfume arising from the "black and tan" rabble in Tucker Hall, yesterday, by no means reminded us of red apples or frankincense forests.

Personals.

Governor Zebulon B. Vance, General Robert B. Vance, Cols. E. D. Hall and Thos. S. Kenan, are stopping at the "Yarborough."

This Local, belongs to the school of "great moral ideas," and could not, therefore, under any circumstances, entertain an appeal to "cold iron," in howsoever playful language the proposition might be couched.

Gorillas are particularly requested to stick a pin here.

Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret will accept our thanks for an excellent pencil and sharpener.

Should our paragraphs appear sharper than usual, Capt. DeCarteret is responsible, not we. Our gorilla friends will take notice.

We learn from the Ashville News that large numbers of the white citizens of the western counties are abandoning the Union League, and uniting themselves with the genuine white man's party of the State. The News publishes the reasons assigned by several of the citizens of Haywood for their withdrawal. They assert always that they were induced to enter the League, believing the organization to be intended to advance the cause of the Union and the Constitution.

Deceived in these particulars, they have washed their hands of the unclean thing, and have arrayed themselves in the ranks of those who really desire and seek to secure sincere and genuine union upon the terms of the constitution.

We invite the attention of the readers of the North Carolinian to the advertisement of the Roanoke News, a sprightly semi-weekly, published at Weldon, N. C., by Messrs. Stone & Uzzell, and edited by that clever gentleman, Jordan Stone. The "News" advocates the great principle that this is a white man's government, and opposes Radicalism in every form. We trust that the people of Eastern Carolina will give it a generous support.

The following gentlemen have been named as Canvassers for the county of New Hanover, by the County Executive Committee: Hon. S. J. Person, Dan'l. B. Baker, Esq., Maj. Duncan S. Devane, Capt. Sam. A. Ashe, Maj. C. W. McClammy and J. D. Meares, Jr., Esq. With so much talent and worth brought into active use, we shall expect a handsome return from New Hanover at the election.

Col. Walter L. Steele, of Richmond county, was to have addressed the White men of New Hanover last night, by invitation. From every section of the State signs of a thorough arousing accumulate.

Our friend Henry G. Williams, of Nash, was yesterday licensed to practice law in the Courts of the State by the Supreme Court. We wish him abundant success in his chosen profession.

White black birds have been as thick as blackberries hereabouts for the past two days.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well. Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.
I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.
Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.
Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Spades, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.
I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.
If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

Trodden Flowers

BY ALFRED TENNYSON.

There are some hearts that, like the loving vine,
Cling to unkindly rocks and ruined towers—
Spirits that suffer and do not repine—
Patient and sweet as lowly trodden flowers,
That from the passer's heel arise,
And bring back ordorous breath instead of sighs.

But there are other hearts that will not feel
The lonely love that haunts their eyes and ears,
That wound fond faith with anger worse than steel,
And out of pity's spring draw idle tears.
Oh, Nature! shall it ever by thy will
Ill things with good to mingle—good with ill?

Why should the heavy foot of sorrow press
The willing heart of uncomplaining love?
Meek Charity, that shrinks not from distres—
Gentleness, loth her tyrants to reprove,
Though Virtue ween forever and lament,
Will one hard heart turn to her and repent?

Why should the reed be broken that will bend?
And they that dry the tears in other's eyes
Fell their own anguish swelling without end,
Their summer darkened by the smoke of sighs?
Sure, Love, to some fair region of his own,
Will flee at last and leave us here alone!

Love weepeth always—weepeth to the past,
For woes that are, for woes that may betide;
Why should not hard Ambition weep at last,
Envy and Hatred, Avarice and Pride?
Fate whispers, so low in your lot:
They should be rebels; Love rebelleth not.

The Hand on the Wall.

The Republican party is self-condemned. In all the measures it urges for adoption, in all the speeches of its leaders, we hear the concession: "It is impracticable, on our principles, to restore the Southern States to the Union without violating their constitutional rights. We cannot allow the rebels to vote; that is to say, we cannot allow the States to manage their own affairs, for then we would be ruined. We cannot allow Andy Johnson to intrigue; that is to say, we must overthrow the constitutional powers of the Executive; for otherwise we should be ruined. We cannot allow the Supreme Court to test the lawfulness of our reconstruction bills; for otherwise we should be ruined. A single co-ordinate department of the government must usurp all its powers, must overawe the bench, must hold the purse, must sway the sword; for otherwise we should be ruined. There is no safety for us except in parcelling out ten States of the Union into military districts and consigning them to the crude legislation of carpet-bag conventions." Such is the language of Republicanism of today.

Unless the American people are lost to every sentiment of liberty, a party, upon whom the necessity of its existence enforces the adoption of these measures, is ruined already. A free people will not take a thousand years to decide whether it is better to sacrifice the constitution and ruin the country, or to dismiss Mr. Stevens to his iron foundry and Mr. Sumner to his Demosthenes.

The spell which has so long enthralled the heart and brain of America is losing its power, as signs frequent and sure declare. Men begin to inquire what the effect will be, if the Jacobin club which so long masked its designs under Republican names, should lose its power. They see very clearly that taxation would be lightened; that order would be re-established; that the obstructions to capital would be removed; that enterprise would no longer be baffled by the necessity of political affairs and the instability of financial expedients; that production would increase; that commerce would revive;—in a word, that the death of that party would be to the nation a resurrection from the dead. And they are beginning to say, let it die! The bloated, drunken Man of the Sea has clung to the neck of his victim long enough!

We cannot donbt that Seneca's truism will soon be illustrated in this country

Iniqua nunquam regna perpetua manent.

The reign of the tyrant has its limits. And the acts of Radicalism are themselves the sure signs that the reign over us is rapidly coming to an end.

How the Parson got Excited.

A few days since, near the city of N. ——, in Connecticut, lived and preached old parson P. ——, who was excitable and near sighted. One day he had been in the city with his horse, and among his purchases was a barrel of flour, the head of which was partially out.

On the way home, the old man was overtaken and passed by a fast young man, driving a fast horse and putting on much airs. Now, the parson's horse was usually a quiet, steady going animal enough, but he couldn't stand that sort of thing; so he started after him on the fast order, in good earnest.

The jolting of the wagon at length jarred the head completely off the barrel, and the strong wind that was blowing directly after the parson, blew the flour all over him and the horse. At last the fast young man was left, and the village reached; but the speed of his horse was not checked.

In driving through a street to reach his home, he came in contact with one of his deacons, who was naturally surprised to see his minister driving at such a pace and signalled him to stop.

"Why, Parson P. ——," said he, "You seem greatly excited."

"Excited!" yelled the old man, 'excited! who in the h—l wouldn't be excited at a snow storm in July? Get up Dobbin.'

The Gorilla.

Du Chaillu is lecturing on the gorilla in New York. He is said to be a man of much humor, and very entertaining. At a public dinner in a northern city he was importuned for a gorilla story, and, in compliance, told one of his best. A distinguished city official, notorious for his negrophilism, who had on several occasions manifested in a good-humored way his incredulity with regard to M. Du C.'s stories, approached him when through his narrative, and addressed him: "M. Du Chaillu, I have heard your marvellous story of your encounter with the gorilla. I desire to know what you suppose a man like me, raised in a city, knowing nothing about hunting, and never in the African forest, would be likely to do upon suddenly meeting the gorilla face to face?" The African traveller promptly replied: "With some knowledge of your antecedents, Mr. ——, I should suppose that if you were so to meet the gorilla, you would, assuming the attitude of courtesy and friendship, impressively and appealingly say to him: 'Am I not a man and a brother?'" It was the best thing of the banquet, and long kept up the uncontrollable mirth of the guests.

What tune should a man sing who is sitting on his wife's new bonnet? "I'm sitting on the style, Mary."

To ascertain how many boys are in the street, open a barrel of apples.

An Illinois farmer set a trap in his corn crib and found a man's hand in it the next morning.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever—her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinnated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
